

Certified Fiber Optic Technician (CFOT®)

This training program teaches the basics and different concepts of fiber optic technology based on world standards.

Prerequisites: none, recommended for all students.

What To Expect In Training Programs For CFOT Certification

- The sections that CFOT covers are:
- Introduction (Overview, Standards, Health & Safety)
- Fiber optic types & Fiber Optic Jargon
- Fiber Optic Communications
- Fiber Optic Transmission Systems and Components
- Fiber optic Cable Types
- Optical Splitters & Couplers
- Termination and Splicing
- Installation & Planning Considerations
- Test Equipment & Correct Procedures
- Fiber Optic Network Design

Hands-on, laboratory seminar, for handling/splicing/measurement of a fiber optic cable.

FOA Certification

Intended for and not restrictive for professional installers electricians - electronic engineers, Telecom engineers, Networking, IT Operations and also Computer science consultants and more..

